Mr. Nealey, school teacher at Snake Plain, is in town.

J. F. Belts, M. L. A., arrived home from Regina on Monday last.

Farmer Fawcett returned to his country residence on Thursday last.

Capt. Hocky, M. L. A., was in town this week and looks well after his parliamentary labors.

Large quantities of white fish and trout are constantly arriving in town from the northern lakes. Traders report fish very plentiful this year.

The many friends of Col. Sprent will regret to learn that he is confined to his bed for some time. We hope to see him around again shortly.

Miss McKay, school teacher at Armadale Mission, Minto's Reserve, is in town spending the Christmas holidays with her sister Mrs. J. W. Hurd.

This week's mail brought us in a copy of the Christmas number of the Globe, which is a very elaborate and artistic journal. The engravings alone are more than value for the small price paid for a copy.

Mr. Robert Hourie died very suddenly on Thursday last, at the residence of his son Peter, of heart disease. The old man was one of Prince Albert's earliest settlers. His remains were buried in St. Mary's cemetery.

The ladies of the Methodist church are giving a grand social in the new Methodist parsonage on Friday evening next, the 4th inst. A first class programme will be presented and a good time guaranteed. Supper served at all hours.

The Royal Templars of Temperance elected the following officers for the ensuing year:—S. C., Rev. J. H. Howard; V. C., Mrs. S. McLeod; Rec. Sec., W. J. Carter; Fin. Sec., J. McTaggart; Treas., Mrs. D. C. McLeod; Chap., J. F. A. Stull; Herald, Chas. Nelson; Guard, Gordon Biggs; S., Alex. Messer.

All kinds of fine goods at Walters & Baker's. They are selling a Persian lamb cap at $3 75. See their woolen goods. Grey flannel, all wool, only 30c per yard.

According to the almanac for 1889 there will have eclipses during the year—three of the sun and two of the moon. Only two of the eclipses are visible in the Territories. The first a total eclipse of the sun on New Year's Day near sunset; the second a partial eclipse of the moon on January 10th about midnight.

A number of complaints were made by parties who bought reserved seats for the entertainment in the Nibel Academy; they could not get the seat they had paid for in consequence of more reserved tickets being sold than there was seating capacity reserved. Whenever seats are reserved, a plan should be made of them and only the same number of tickets sold.

On Christmas Day the Hon. L. and Mrs. Clarke, with their usual generosity, had a very large and heavily loaded Christmas tree, around which all the children in the settlement were gathered. After the little ones had about played themselves out with all sorts of games and good things, Mr. Clarke presented each one with a valuable present. The youngsters were well pleased with the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke and are never tired of talking about their Christmas tree.

Cashmere and Woolen Hosiery, of all kinds and sizes, Ladies' Jerseys, and Cardigan Jackets for gents, etc. All goods will be sold to suit the times. Walters & Baker.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken up by your sick child suffering and crying with pain of teething? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's SWITTING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's SWITTING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING is present to the mother, and in the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the U. S., and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25c a bottle.

NISBET ACADEMY.

Conversations and Opening Ceremonies

The large classroom of the new Nisbet Academy building was crowded to its utmost capacity on Friday evening last by one of the most select audiences that ever assembled in Prince Albert. The occasion was a musical and literary entertainment given by the trustees, in aid of the funds of the Academy as well as to celebrate the completion and opening of the building. It will be remembered that over a year ago it was found necessary to secure a building suitable for the purpose of carrying on the work of this institution, and Dr. Jardine was commissioned by the trustees to visit the various provinces in order to raise the necessary funds; a considerable proportion of the amount required had already been subscribed by friends of the Academy here. So well did the Rev. Dr. Jardine succeed in his mission, that last spring the erection of the splendid edifice which has just been completed was commenced; we believe that it cost over $100,000 and is free from debt. The building is of brick forty by sixty feet, and two stories high, and situated as it is, on the high hill back from the town, presents a very fine appearance. It is well arranged inside, there being besides three large classrooms, living apartments for a resident tutor; the rooms are all well lighted and airy and the other sanitary conditions of the building are perfect.

As already stated, long before the hour appointed, every seat and inch of standing room in the concert hall was occupied, many people not being able to gain admittance; a stage was erected at one end of the room and was very tastefully fitted up with curtains and other stage appointments. The entertainment was opened at 8 o'clock sharp by the Rev. Dr. Jardine, who made a short address welcoming the public to the academy; this part of the programme was to have been filled by Col. Sprout but owing to a slight illness he was unable to be present. The Hon. L. Clarke made a short and appropriate speech, in which he made feeling reference to the late Mr. Nisbet, the founder of Prince Albert and the heroic missionary in whose memory this building was erected, and congratulated the Trustees on the success of their efforts in the cause of higher education; he concluded by thanking Dr. Jardine for the welcome extended to those present. The next on the programme was a piano duet by Mrs. Porter and Mr. Gunn which was well executed. This was followed by a short piece in the nature of a dialogue entitled "Canada and her Daughter" which was composed specially for the occasion by the Rev. Dr. Jardine. The following ladies took part in the performance of this piece: Mesdames Sprout, Jardine, Porter, Newlands and Knowlton. Misses Cameron and McGregor. Mrs. Sprout took the leading role as Mrs. Canada, while each of the others represented one or other of the provinces. Mrs. Porter represented the Maritime Provinces and Miss Cameron the Territories; the ladies were all proficient in the parts assigned to them and were all doing well, would be invidious to discriminate. This piece was written in verse, and we must say of a very high order of merit, and reflects great credit on the learned author. Mr. Johnson next followed with a song in his usual masterly style. An instrumental duet, violin and piano, by Messrs. Way and Gunn was then rendered in a very fine manner. Next came a song "The Rose Bush," by Miss Hill, who was loudly cheered and responded by singing "I wouldn't, would you?" later on Miss Hill executed in capital style a piano solo and sang "Little April Fool" and in response to an encore, a humorous song which was well received. This was Miss Hill's first appearance before a Prince Albert audience and she succeeded in creating a most favorable impression. She has a rich and well trained voice and will prove a great acquisition to the musical talent of our town. There was a tableau, in which Messrs F. C. Baker and A. B. Sprout took part. They were in full Indian and trapper costume which created considerable amusement; the representation was good. Mr. Campbell then recited in his usual vigorous and able manner, "The Charge of the Light Brigade." One of the best pieces on the programme was a reading by the Rev. Dr. Jardine, entitled "How Baby Played"; the selection is a Yankee's description of a performance on the piano by the great Rubenstein; it was well read and highly appreciated by the audience. The closing piece was a short play, "Genevra" which was very well put on the boards, and of the performers doing well. The singing of the national anthem brought a most enjoyable and successful entertainment to a close. The proceeds were about $150.00. The "Igods" were present in force and behaved very well, but at times were rather too demonstrative. The acoustic properties of the room were also impaired by stretching a curtain across the ceiling over the front of the stage. If anywhere, it is in public that people should be natural; if there is one thing, more than another, repugnant to North Westers it is affectation; we do not wish to be unkind nor to hurt the feelings of anybody, but what we say we say in all kindness and hope that if there was such a thing as a parade at this entertainment, he offence may never re-occur.

TOWN COUNCIL

The council held its last meeting, in the council chamber, on Saturday last. His Worship the mayor in the chair.

The other councillors present were: Kestler, Davis, Stewart, Johnson, Mc-Paul and Agnew.

The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed.

The following accounts were presented and ordered to be paid:—T. McKinnon, $1.00. Hard & Baker, $6.00. Walters & Baker, $2.00.

A B. L. for appointing Deputy Returning Officers and fixing polling booths was read and confirmed, and passed, after which the council adjourned.
